LIVE THE DREAM

---

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Brian Knaff and Talent Buyers Network for nearly 20 years. In that time we have worked together on acts like Ringo Starr, The Monkees and now the Rock and Roll Fantasy Camp which is one of the most innovative new and refreshing shows available in the United States.

Brian Knaff is known as a professional veteran that can be trusted by the artist and the manager. That is why Brian can pick up the phone to New York, LA or Nashville and get anyone on the phone to answer his call. He can buy any artist in this business at any level and I personally know that he is very loyal to his clients.

I highly recommend Brian Knaff and Talent Buyers Network.

Best Regards,
